

Hope Star

VOLUME 35—NUMBER 247

(AP)—Harris Associated Press
(NEA)—Harris Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

HOPE, ARKANSAS, TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1934

Star of Hope Founded 1880; Hope Daily Press, 1927
Consolidated as Hope Star, January 18, 1928.

PRICE 5c COPY

WINDSTORM RAKES COUNTY

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

LITTLE ROCK, angered a while ago because some statistician showed it to be one of the leading murder cities of America, awakes this morning to read furtively the account of the second "unwritten law" shooting within a week.

Suspension of the Bankhead Law Not Likely This Year

Secretary Wallace Refuses to Consider Petition to President

PROTECT FAITHFUL

Under Terms of Law, Farmer Hit by Drouth May Sell Certificates

WASHINGTON.—(P)—The Farm Administration announced Tuesday a continuation of the processing tax on cotton at 42 cents per pound for the next marketing year.

Bankhead Law Stands

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Despite talk of possible suspension, the Bankhead cotton bill seems likely to remain on the statute books long enough to furnish the first test involving compulsory control of a major farm crop.

Quite a few farm officials would like to see the president exercise his vested authority to set aside the complicated measure. On the other hand, there are quite a few also who would oppose such a step.

Secretary Wallace, it was said authoritatively Monday, has given the matter little thought and apparently has no present intention of asking Mr. Roosevelt to suspend the bill.

Even with a short cotton crop, well below the 10,460,250 bales which may be sold tax free under the bill, there would be difficulties surrounding any decision to nullify the measure.

Would End Control

For one thing, suspension probably would mean the end of any attempt to regulate the cotton crop by compulsion.

The growers who would benefit by a suspension of the bill are those whose yield exceeds the quotas they may sell tax free.

Under the measure's terms, the 10,460,251 bales may be sold much as cotton has always been sold, but beyond that a unit of five and a fraction cents a pound is levied.

Each state and county was allotted the cotton it might sell without the tax and committees are working out the tax free quotas for individual farmers.

On the basis of present conditions, the total yield might be well below 10,460,000 bales and yet many growers in the Eastern section of the belt, where prospects are good, may be subject to the tax.

Quite a few inquiries about the possibility of suspending the bill already have come from west of the Mississippi, officials said, but at the same time sentiment for the measure is reported growing among the farmers in the drouth area of Texas and Oklahoma.

May Sell Quotas

Each farmer will be allowed to sell tax exemption certificates if he fails to reach the quota.

For example, if the Texas and Oklahoma crop is short and the yield is heavy in the Eastern part of the belt, the growers in the West might sell their extra certificates to the Eastern producers.

In this case, the tax exemption certificates would be a form of crop insurance. Farmers producing less than their quotas would be paid—provided there is a market for their certificates—for cotton they did not raise.

But if the total crop is under the 10,600,000 bales and the Eastern producers are forced to buy certificates to market some of the cotton they raised because of favorable growing conditions, they are certain to complain.

Pliney Dickert Is Shot in Robbery

Paroled Arkansas Prisoner Wounded in Escape From Monroe

EL DORADO, Ark.—Advises were received here Monday afternoon of the probable fatal wounding of W. P. (Pliney) Dickert at Farmersville, La., early Monday.

He was rushed to the St. Francis hospital in Monroe, La. The shooting occurred in the outskirts of Farmersville and followed the robbery of the Francis hotel in Monroe at 4 a. m. when the hotel safe and cash register and employees were relieved of $195.35.

According to information here (Continued on Page Three)

Is a field of drooping oaks, Through which the poppies show their scarlet coats, So pert and useless, that they bring to mind The scarlet coats that pester humankind.

The chronology of public morality would read something like this: Twenty years ago: He got what was coming to him.

Ten years ago: Anyway, there's one less radio crooner.

Today: This publicity is hurting our city.

Speaking of gun-play, the city administration of New Orleans is lodging a complaint with the Department of War charging that Governor Allen and Senator Long are misusing the Louisiana National Guard.

State troops have been put into the city registry office, where the lists of accredited voters are kept.

Here's an issue that vitally affects the public safety. An election is coming on in Louisiana. The New Orleans city machine and the Long-controlled state machine are at "outs" with each other. Long, naturally enough, suspects New Orleans is going to steal his vote—and I don't doubt but what New Orleans has that very thing in mind. On the other hand, Long is accused of stealing opposition votes up-state.

This is the merry old game of politics—and the voters will sooner or later work it out peacefully enough if the troops are kept away.

Long has overplayed his hand sending armed men into New Orleans after New Orleans' citizens have just outvoted him in a municipal election.

America is still a land of local self-government. No state has any right to govern the internal affairs of a city. To force the issue with troops is a tyrannical and dangerous procedure. It invites the prospect of a clash between armed police and armed soldiers.

Under the measure's terms, the 10,460,251 bales may be sold much as cotton has always been sold, but beyond that a unit of five and a fraction cents a pound is levied.

Each state and county was allotted the cotton it might sell without the tax and committees are working out the tax free quotas for individual farmers.

On the basis of present conditions, the total yield might be well below 10,460,000 bales and yet many growers in the Eastern section of the belt, where prospects are good, may be subject to the tax.

Quite a few inquiries about the possibility of suspending the bill already have come from west of the Mississippi, officials said, but at the same time sentiment for the measure is reported growing among the farmers in the drouth area of Texas and Oklahoma.

In this case, the tax exemption certificates would be a form of crop insurance. Farmers producing less than their quotas would be paid—provided there is a market for their certificates—for cotton they did not raise.

But if the total crop is under the 10,600,000 bales and the Eastern producers are forced to buy certificates to market some of the cotton they raised because of favorable growing conditions, they are certain to complain.

Pliney Dickert is shot in robbery. Paroled Arkansas prisoner wounded in escape from Monroe.

El Dorado, Ark.—Advises were received here Monday afternoon of the probable fatal wounding of W. P. (Pliney) Dickert at Farmersville, La., early Monday.

He was rushed to the St. Francis hospital in Monroe, La. The shooting occurred in the outskirts of Farmersville and followed the robbery of the Francis hotel in Monroe at 4 a. m. when the hotel safe and cash register and employees were relieved of $195.35.

According to information here (Continued on Page Three)

Is a field of drooping oaks, Through which the poppies show their scarlet coats, So pert and useless, that they bring to mind The scarlet coats that pester humankind.

The chronology of public morality would read something like this: Twenty years ago: He got what was coming to him.

Ten years ago: Anyway, there's one less radio crooner.

Today: This publicity is hurting our city.

Speaking of gun-play, the city administration of New Orleans is lodging a complaint with the Department of War charging that Governor Allen and Senator Long are misusing the Louisiana National Guard.

State troops have been put into the city registry office, where the lists of accredited voters are kept.

Here's an issue that vitally affects the public safety. An election is coming on in Louisiana. The New Orleans city machine and the Long-controlled state machine are at "outs" with each other. Long, naturally enough, suspects New Orleans is going to steal his vote—and I don't doubt but what New Orleans has that very thing in mind. On the other hand, Long is accused of stealing opposition votes up-state.

This is the merry old game of politics—and the voters will sooner or later work it out peacefully enough if the troops are kept away.

Long has overplayed his hand sending armed men into New Orleans after New Orleans' citizens have just outvoted him in a municipal election.

America is still a land of local self-government. No state has any right to govern the internal affairs of a city. To force the issue with troops is a tyrannical and dangerous procedure. It invites the prospect of a clash between armed police and armed soldiers.

Under the measure's terms, the 10,460,251 bales may be sold much as cotton has always been sold, but beyond that a unit of five and a fraction cents a pound is levied.

Each state and county was allotted the cotton it might sell without the tax and committees are working out the tax free quotas for individual farmers.

On the basis of present conditions, the total yield might be well below 10,460,000 bales and yet many growers in the Eastern section of the belt, where prospects are good, may be subject to the tax.

Quite a few inquiries about the possibility of suspending the bill already have come from west of the Mississippi, officials said, but at the same time sentiment for the measure is reported growing among the farmers in the drouth area of Texas and Oklahoma.

In this case, the tax exemption certificates would be a form of crop insurance. Farmers producing less than their quotas would be paid—provided there is a market for their certificates—for cotton they did not raise.

But if the total crop is under the 10,600,000 bales and the Eastern producers are forced to buy certificates to market some of the cotton they raised because of favorable growing conditions, they are certain to complain.

Pliney Dickert is shot in robbery. Paroled Arkansas prisoner wounded in escape from Monroe.

El Dorado, Ark.—Advises were received here Monday afternoon of the probable fatal wounding of W. P. (Pliney) Dickert at Farmersville, La., early Monday.

He was rushed to the St. Francis hospital in Monroe, La. The shooting occurred in the outskirts of Farmersville and followed the robbery of the Francis hotel in Monroe at 4 a. m. when the hotel safe and cash register and employees were relieved of $195.35.

According to information here (Continued on Page Three)

Hindenburg, Germany's Hero, Dying

President, 86, Is Failing Fast; Was Twice a Patriot

Called Out of Retirement in 1914 and Again in 1925

SMASHED RUSSIANS

Victory in East Prussia Elevated Him to the Western Front

FREYSTADT, Germany.—(P)—The condition of Paul von Hindenburg, 86-year-old president of Germany, grew suddenly worse Tuesday.

Physicians said they feared the worst.

Members of the family were called to the bedside.

Physicians said the Reich president Tuesday morning took breakfast outside his bed, and showed a complete understanding of what was going on about him.

After returning to bed he fell into a quiet sleep. His pulse was strong, although numerically higher.

Hero of Germany

Paul von Brückendorff and von Hindenburg was born at Posen in 1847, became a subaltern in 1886 and served with distinction in both the war against Austria and the Franco-German war of 1871.

A curious thing about his life is that he completed the normal man's military career and was retired with distinguished honors in 1911—three years before the World War broke out. He had been promoted major general in 1900, lieutenant general in 1903—and in 1911 had apparently completed his service to his country.

But in 1914 he was recalled from private life to head the German armies in his native East Prussia, which was being threatened by Russia. He crushed the Russians in the battles of Tannenberg and Masurian Lakes—and was appointed field marshal and transferred to the Western Front.

The Hindenburg Line It was on the Western Front that he constructed the famous "Hindenburg Line," where the Germans made their stand in 1918 after failure to penetrate the French defenses before Paris. The Hindenburg Line ran from Louvain, toward the Aisne by way of Quant, St. Quentin, La Fere and the St. Gobain forest, consisting of elaborate trenches, barbed-wire entanglements, concrete positions for artillery, and machine-gun block-houses.

In 1918 von Hindenburg disbanded the defeated German armies and retired a second time to private life—from which he was a second time recalled, in April, 1925, to become the Reich president.

By opposing the radical Adolf Hitler and his National Socialists (Nazis) until 1930, and finally forcing a compromise when Hitler was elevated to the chancellorship, President von Hindenburg is credited with a patriotic diplomacy as great as his distinguished military career. He has represented for nearly three generations the traditional German "middle of the road" policy.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

2 Austrian Nazi Plotters Are Hanged for Dollfuss' Murder

Planetta, Who Fired Shots, and Holzweber, Plot Leader, Put to Death, Following Court-Martial

VIENNA, Austria.—(P)—Two Nazis convicted of taking part in the putsch in which Chancellor Dollfuss was slain were hanged Tuesday after pleas for clemency had been rejected.

One of them, Otto Planetta, former army staff sergeant, fired the shots into Dollfuss' body, and the other, Otto Holzweber, was the leader of the putsch.

They were the first Nazis executed in Austria.

Planetta insisted he had not meant to kill Dollfuss, and was sorry.

By the Associated Press

Emil Fey, former Austrian vice chancellor, testified Monday at the court-martial of two Nazis accused of the slaying of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, that Dollfuss' last words were a plea that Dr. Anton Rintelen, pro-Nazi politician, "must make peace."

The two defendants—Franz Holzweber, alleged leader of last Wednesday's putsch at the chancellery, and Otto Planetta, who police said confessed shooting Dollfuss—faced hanging for their part in the affair.

Nazis set off bombs in various parts of Austria as the trial started. Some Nazi rebels, still under arms, were holding out in the Southern provinces, but the government troops called to have the situation well in hand.

In Munich, it was reported that the Austrian Nazi Legion will be disbanded by Chancellor Hitler as another evidence of Germany's "hands off" policy toward Austria. More Nazis were forced across the Yugoslav border as government troops pressed them, bringing the total in that country past 1,000.

Italian troops continued on the Austrian border and back from the Yugoslav border, but no indication of movement was given.

The Yugoslavian legation in Berlin said that unilateral action by any nation in the crisis might have serious consequences.

Trial Is Begun

VIENNA, Austria.—(P)—The Ballhausplatz putsch in which Chancellor

(Continued on Page Three)

One of 4 Fugitive Prisoners Gives Up

Second Believed in Mississippi Looking for Buried Money

TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark.—(P)—One of four convicts who escaped from here Monday surrendered Tuesday, another was somewhere near Vicksburg, Miss., where he claims to have $1,700 buried, while a posse of bloodhounds searched for the two others between McGeehee and Lake Village where they were last seen.

T. F. Bramlett, Mississippi county, surrendered.

He told officers he stole two cars and forced the owners to go along as hostages. Hamilton Davis, Plum Bayou, and John F. Moore, traveling salesman of Arkadelphia, the hostages, were released at McGeehee.

Palmer Bridges, Prairie county; John Byers, Washington county; and John Savage, St. Francis county, are the other fugitives.

Four Escape

TUCKER PRISON FARM.—Two prisoners laid down their road-working tools and joined their two trusty guards in a break for freedom about 3:30 Monday afternoon. Poses were organized hurriedly, but no trace of the quartet had been found Monday night.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

One of the convicts, John Savage, 30, alias Earl Smith, serving a term of five years from St. Francis county for robbery and burglary, previously had escaped from St. Francis county in May, 1931, but was captured at Jackson, Miss., and returned to the farm by Superintendent Todhunter in February, 1933.

Palmer Bridges, 39, another of the four, was serving a life sentence from Prairie county for murder. He was a trusty, and was sent to the farm in March, 1933. The other trusty was John W. Myers, 28, alias Johnny Byers, sent up in August, 1933, from Washington county for two years for forgery and uttering. The other member of the quartet was P. F. Bramlett, 35, of Mississippi county, who was sent up in April, this year, for a year for false pretense.

The prisoners were repairing a road between Camps Nos. 1 and 2, Superintendent Todhunter said, when they escaped. The four were alone at the time.

Ballot Positions Are Fixed Monday by County Group

Here Is the Order in Which Candidates Will Appear August 14

TO SELECT JUDGES

County Central Committee Will Choose Them on August 9

The order in which state, district, county and township candidates will appear on the ballot at the preferential primary election August 14 was determined by the Hempstead County Democratic County Central Committee late Monday afternoon.

The committee will meet again August 9 at 10 a. m., in Hope city hall to select judges and clerks for the election, according to a notice published by W. S. Atkins and F. Y. Trimble, chairman and secretary respectively of the committee.

The official ballot will appear as follows:

OFFICIAL BALLOT, Democratic Primary for State, District, Circuit, County and Township Officers for Primary Election on Aug. 14, 1934, in Hempstead County, Arkansas.

(Voters should cross out or scratch off the names of all candidates except those for whom they desire to vote.)

FOR GOVERNOR—Vote for one: J. M. Futrell Howard Reed

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE—Vote for one: C. G. (Crip) Hall Ed. F. McDonald

FOR STATE TREASURER—Vote for one: Roy V. Leonard Earl Page

FOR STATE AUDITOR—Vote for one: R. W. (Bob) Parrish Charles Parker J. Oscar Humphrey

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL—Vote for one: Hal L. Norwood Carl Bailey

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT—Vote for three: Basil Baker J. H. Humphries Tom M. Mehaffy

FOR COMMISSIONER OF STATE LANDS—Vote for one: Geo. W. Neal

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS, 7th District—Vote for one: Timban B. Parks Wade Kitchens W. S. Atkins Fletcher McElhannon Neill C. Marsh

Society

MRS. SID HENRY TELEPHONE 321

Two Raindrops
(A Fable)
Two little raindrops were born in a shower, and one was so pompously proud of his power, he got in his head an extravagant notion. He held his right arm out and swallow the ocean. A blade of grass that grew by the brook called for a drink, but no notice he took. Of such trifling things, he must hurry to be. Not a mere raindrop, but the whole sea. But the other drop as along it went found the work to do for which it was sent. It refreshed the lily that drooped its head, and bathed the grass that was almost dead. It worked every step of the way it went. Bringing joy to others, to itself content. At last it came to the journey's end, and welcomed the sea as an old-time friend. . . . Selected.

Miss Frances Snyder has returned to summer school in Ouchita college after a week and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kline Snyder and home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lewis had a week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Payne and son remained for a longer returned home Sunday night, Mrs. Payne and son remaining for a longer visit.

Mrs. Fannie Garrett has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett in their country home near Okolona.

Herman Valentine and Nolen Cargile

Hot? . . . maybe so . . . but NOT at the cool—

SAEGER
NOW

Together Again!
JOAN BLONDELL
and
JAMES CAGNEY

Jimmy was a marked man and Joan was a branded woman . . . but—

Contest Days
"HE WAS HER MAN"

—SHORTS—
Comedy
"Mr. Adam"
Pictorial

THUR. ONLY
Mathews Night
ANOTHER
big mid-week

Western program that's complete with three mighty interesting short units. Bring the family.
KEN MAYNARD SMOKING GUNS

have returned from a two weeks' visit to the World's Fair in Chicago. En route home they visited with relatives in St. Louis and Peabodias, Ark.

R. R. Forrester and Miss Marguerite Taylor were Monday visitors in Shreveport.

Mrs. J. R. Williams and little daughter Nancy Jean and Patricia left on Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends in Bearden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lewis and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Payne and little son spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Arkadelphia.

Miss Nancy Robins, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robins entertained a group of her young friends at a most delightful party Monday afternoon at her home on E. Third street. The occasion being in celebration of the young hostess' eleventh birthday anniversary, which was very beautifully emphasized with a large birthday cake topped with eleven lighted tapers. Games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Anita Jean Davis had as Monday night guest, Miss Virginia Rogers of El Dorado.

The Everyman's Bible Class will meet at the home of its teacher, C. S. Lowthorp Thursday night, August 2, 7:45. All members and their wives are urged to be here. Bring a friend with you. There will be plenty of watermelon for all.

The annual Luck-Jackson reunion was held Thursday July 19, at Hollis Springs church. After a short business session and election of officers a lovely luncheon was enjoyed by all. After lunch a devotional message was brought to a group of 63 relatives by Bro. J. A. Jackson of Waldo. After enjoying watermelons the group was entertained by readings given by Miss Mary Lee Bailey of Rosston and Martha Sue and Patsy Pearl Webb of Shreveport.

Reporters Get 6th Prison Sentence

A Third Young Man Is Dragged Into Kentucky Case

DANVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—Another witness in the hanging in effigy case refused late Monday to tell Police Judge Jay W. Harlan what he knew about certain phases of it, while Jack Durham and Wesley Carly, reporters, went back to jail for the sixth time rather than break a newspaper confidence.

The latest refusal came from Victor Bodner, 24, a University of Alabama medical student, who has been clerking in a grocery store here during vacations. He attended the inquiry accompanied by a lawyer and refused to answer questions about the placard that was fastened to the effigy of Representative J. Sterling Towles which was suspended in the courthouse yard July 19 in protest over Towles' vote for the state sales tax.

Bodner's refusal was on the grounds that his testimony might incriminate him. Judge Harlan gave young Bodner until Wednesday to think over his refusal, and sentenced Carly and Durham to serve six hours each in jail Monday night.

New Orleans Band Will Play Thursday

"Fat" Kelly and his Majestic Ramblers, a 12-piece rhythm orchestra direct from the Golden Slipper night club at New Orleans, will play for an Elks dance here Thursday night.

The public is invited. The music starts promptly at 10 o'clock, according to Speedy Hutson, a member of the dance committee.

In the last 24 years eight monarchs of nations have lost their thrones. They ruled Germany, Russia, Austria-Hungary, China, Portugal, Greece, Spain and Turkey.

2 AUSTRIAN

(Continued from Page One)

Engelbert Dollfuss was assassinated last Wednesday took on even more fantastic aspects as a court-martial sat in judgment Monday night on two men who participated in it.

One man, Otto Planette, disgruntled former sergeant of the Austrian army, was accused of the actual murder of the chancellor. His companion, Franz Holzweber, was charged with being leader of the ill-fated putsch.

Testimony of these two indicated that the death of Dollfuss was a clumsy accident which climaxed a bungled insurrection. Both swore their instructions from a "higher up" were to abstain rigidly from all violence and to make every effort to keep the putsch on a "legal basis."

Equally as startling as this testimony were the statements of Emil Fey, former vice chancellor and a member of the Dollfuss government, that as Dollfuss lay dying he asked that one of his political opponents, Dr. Anton Rintelen, be asked to restore peace to Austria.

Rintelen, now in a hospital seriously wounded, was the Austrian minister to Italy and the man selected by Nazi revolutionaries as a successor to Dollfuss.

Elbow Jolted

Planette, a sun-burned, vigorous man, surprised the court by saying that he had his pistol trained on another person, and that a jolt to his elbow thrust the weapon in the direction of the little chancellor.

"I was aiming at a big man directly on front of me—I do not know who he was—who had just put up his hands at my command. Someone darted past me or against me from behind and my pistol went off. When I turned to see what had happened I saw the chancellor had been struck."

"I asked him 'are you hurt?'"

"He answered, 'I do not know.'"

"Then try to stand," I said.

"I can't," he answered.

"I was dismayed when I saw what had happened and ran into a corridor to call for bandages. Then I tried to find a surgeon in the house. Word was sent for one, but he never came."

Holzweber, corroborated his fellow-defendant's testimony in many particulars, agreed that they were under orders to use no violence.

"After the shooting, Planette came to me and said, 'I didn't mean to do it,'" Holzweber declared.

Even stranger than this version of the death of Dr. Dollfuss, which did not agree with confessions allegedly obtained by the police, was the admission of Holzweber that after he had carried out an unnamed leader's order to capture the chancellor, no one came to tell him what to do next.

1 KILLED, 4 HURT

(Continued from Page One)

error was informed, an effort will be made by the strikers to halt all trucks by force.

Threats of a general strike in Chicago's stockyards loomed as the striking handlers continued peaceful picketing. The meat cutters and butchers were reported ready to join the handlers, while Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, recovery chief, was reported about to fly to the scene and take a hand as mediator.

The Pacific coast longshoremen's strike ended with the men who walked out May 9, going back to work at all ports. The grievances will be arbitrated.

The strike of tugmen at many of the Great Lakes ports ended under much the same conditions. The men also start back to work this morning.

Kohler, Wis., was quiet as 600 troopers stood guard around the scene where two men were killed last week. Renewed efforts to end this dispute also were under way.

The recently created Labor Relations Board in Washington handed down its first decision involving a couple of minor employees of the Jersey City-Lyndhurst Bus Company. The company was ordered to reinstate two men or face citation to the Justice Department.

ANOTHER HUSBAND

(Continued from Page One)

Mrs. Collins, who is 27, married Collins three years ago. Collins was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas, but withdrew from the race about two weeks ago.

He declined to make a formal, signed statement to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Auten, but he related frankly and informally the incidents leading up to the shooting.

"White came into the room where I was having dinner with friends, and said he wanted to talk to me," he related. "I told him I'd talk to him as soon as I'd finished by tomato juice."

"We went into the bathroom, and he started telling me about his wife—that he couldn't give her up—all that—he made a move with his hand when the discussion became heated and, before God, I don't know yet what happened."

"I shot, but I don't know how or why. The noise, to me, was no more than the popping of a match. I didn't realize what I had done."

"I hope and trust he recovers. I didn't mean to shoot him at all. I don't want him to die. I'll stay right here and see it through to the end."

At the time of White's arrival, Collins was dining with his brother-in-law, R. M. Yarbrough Jr., and the latter's wife, of 1109 Pine street, Jack White, brother of the wounded man, also was in the room when the shooting occurred.

Collins told Mr. Auten, the deputy prosecuting attorney said, that his wife left home six weeks ago and that he suspected she had gone off with White. He came to Little Rock, he said, and engaged a Little Rock private detective to help him run them down.

He and the detective traced them to Augusta, Ga., according to his story, and found them in a compromising situation in a hotel there. He admitted to Mr. Auten that he threatened them to turn White over to the federal authorities for violation of the Mann act, but agreed not to do so when they both promised not to see each other

New Orleans to Protest to U. S.

City Claims National Guard Troops Are Being Used Illegally

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—City administration leaders said Tuesday they planned to protest to the Department of War and possibly the U. S. attorney general that the Louisiana National Guard had been misused by Governor O. K. Allen and Senator Huey P. Long.

Troops in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Sen. Huey P. Long's bitter fight against the New Orleans city government was climaxed Monday night when partial martial law was declared and more than a score of National Guardsmen crashed into the city registration office and took charge of it.

Names of all persons qualified to vote in the coming congressional primary in September, in which both Senator Long and Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, his bitter political opponent, are supporting rival candidates, men entered the Francis hotel in Monroe at 4:10 a. m., forced Night Clerk Chas. Estes and other employees to lie on the floor. After ransacking the safe and cash register and relieving the employees of their valuables all were forced into an elevator and sent upstairs. The three men then escaped in an automobile, said to have been stolen at Ruston, La., earlier in the night.

PLINEY DICKERT

(Continued from Page One)

The sheriff's department was immediately notified and in turn called all neighboring points. Deputy Sheriff Edwards and other officials at Farmersville were on the highway leading from Monroe when a speeding automobile came by. In making a sharp turn at the edge of Farmersville the car overturned. The men fled, Edwards gave chase on foot, with the resulting wounding of Dickert. The other men escaped and were being sought this afternoon.

Dickert is well known in El Dorado. He formerly lived here. His recent address was Texarkana. He was under parole from the state penitentiary of Arkansas, having been convicted here in connection with a robbery at Snack over. He was also wanted at other places on various charges.

Dickert, according to reports here, was shot four times, once in the shoulder, once through the lungs, once through the abdomen and once in the left leg. Physicians at the St. Francis hospital said his condition is precarious.

again.

Mrs. Collins returned to Texas with him, he said, and White presumably came to Little Rock.

Saturday, Mrs. Collins left her home again. Mr. Auten said, and Collins arrived here Sunday.

Sale

Mens Cool $1.49 Summer WASH PANTS

98c

98c

- NOVELTY SEERSUCKERS!
- COOL STIFEL STRIPES!
- NEW SPANISH CHECKS!
- ALL SIZES FOR MEN!
- MORE THAN 500 PAIRS!

A splendid showing of Novelty Wash Patterns (the seersucker is a knockout!) at a price you would expect at the end of the season! Extra long lengths and plenty of large sizes.

REPCHAN'S
THE NEW YORK STORE

are registered in the book in the office. Guardsmen, who entered the building in darkness, and moved about inside by the aid of flashlights, as large crowds gathered outside, continued to occupy the building late at night. Guards were stationed at all doors and windows.

No one would say what the group was doing inside the building.

"It's a tea party," a private stationed at the main entrance said.

When police were called for an explanation of the matter, they were unaware that the raid was being made.

"The only object I can see," said Mayor Walmsley, who arrived on the scene in a short time, "is to prevent the proper inspection of books at a time when the records are usually open for inspection."

The troops were led in the raid on the office by Adj. Gen. Raymond H. Fleming, who advised Mayor Walmsley that Governor Allen had declared "partial martial law to protect the registration office from insult or intimidation."

Governor Allen and other state officials were closeted with Senator Long in his hotel suite, from which he directs his political affairs while in New Orleans.

"General Fleming will give you all the information," the governor said. A reporter who asked to see Senator Long was pushed 50 feet down the corridor by Paul Volter, one of Senator Long's bodyguards.

"We don't want you any nearer this," Volter said. "If you come around that door again, I'll let you have it."

LOOK OUT FOR THE BIG WIND!

THE DEVASTATING TORNADO

Let our insurance protect you from loss when the Big Wind comes. Tornado insurance is safety-first-last-and-all-the-time for the prudent man.

ROY ANDERSON & CO.
COMPLETE INSURANCE SERVICE
Phone 810
Hope, Arkansas

HARVEST SALE

We've Done It Again!

Crowds and More Crowds attended our great Harvest Sale. Proof that Hope's thrifty shoppers appreciate Robison's policy of Honest Values truthfully advertised. Below we list spectacular savings for men.

STRAW HAT

Better Straws

98c

Includes every hat that was formerly priced up to $2.98.

OTHERS

49c

Think of it! Dress Straw hats for only 49c. Plenty of sizes.

SALE of Men's Summer SUITS

$6.98

Save 50% and more on these fine tailored summer suits. Buy next summer's suit now.

DRESS PANTS

White and Neat Stripes

$1.49

They're "Handouts" at

98c

Complete clearance of all our finer summer dress pants. Every pair smartly tailored and pre-shrunk. Stock up at this low price.

Washable colors and Blue and Tan Stripes. Wide waist bands with side buckles. Some carry the 22-inch bottom. Sizes 28 to 36.

WE GIVE EAGLE STAMPS

THE LEADING DEPARTMENT STORE

Geo. W. Robison & Co.

HOPE

PRESCOTT

NASHVILLE

Spectacular BARGAINS

WOMEN'S DRESSES

Regardless of Former Price

1/2 off

MEN'S HATS

HARVEST HATS

Values to 35c

19c

DRESS STRAWS

$1.00 Values

49c

WHITE CAPS . . . . .19c

PATTERSON'S
DEPARTMENT STORE

Famous Stage Star

HORIZONTAL

1. Who is the dramatic actress in the picture?

2. Fertile spots in a desert.

3. Snaky fish.

4. Stigma.

5. Brought up.

6. Grew dimmer.

7. Singing voice.

8. Wrath.

9. Sells.

10. Falsehood.

11. South America.

12. Italian river.

13. Decree.

14. Tubular sheath on a plant.

15. Rodent.

16. Golf device.

17. Open passage in a forest.

18. Flavor.

19. Minor note.

20. Senior.

21. Half an em. railroad.

22. Frozen water.

23. Adorned with nails.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

1. Doctor.

20. Semi-liquid cookery mixtures.

21. Stained.

22. Cigar fish (p.l.).

23. Sea.

24. She is — by birth.

25. God of war.

26. Thing.

27. She has been most successful in —

28. Decorative mesh.

29. Three.

30. All, distributively.

31. Toward.

32. Coffee pots.

33. To let fall.

34. Ten cents.

35. Corpse.

36. Monetary unit of Italy.

37. Ratite bird.

38. To perish.

39. All right.

40. Measure of area.

41. Rumanian coins.

42. Guided.

43. Exists.

44. To liquefy.

45. Opposite of a weather.

46. Dove's cry.

47. Name.

48. Ozone.

49. She is famous for her — roles.

50. Kimono sash.

51. Organ of hearing.

52. Female deer.

53. One for whose Father.

VERTICAL

1. Grated.

2. One for whose Father.

3. use a thing is done.

4. Florentine Iris.

5. Flat round plate.

6. Dove's cry.

7. Name.

8. Ozone.

9. She is famous for her — roles.

10. Kimono sash.

11. Organ of hearing.

12. Female deer.

13. One for whose Father.

Peach Prices

F.o.b. shipping point, information reported for Saturday, July 28:

NASHVILLE, Ark.—Hot, cloudy and showers. Haulings moderate, good wire inquiry. Demand good for large stock and limited for small stock. Market firm. Carlots f.o.b. usual terms and f.o.b. cash track. Elbertas US No. 1 2 in min bu baskets 1.50, some asking higher; 1 3-4 in min 1.25 to 1.40, 80 per cent or more US No. 1 2 in min 1.25 to 1.40, 1 7-8 in min 1.00 to 1.15, 1 5-6 in min .80 to 1.00. Sunday warm and partly cloudy.

MACON, Ga.—Hot, partly cloudy. Haulings moderate. Moderate wire in-

Sell It! Find It! Rent It! Buy It! in the Hope Star

Market Place

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

1 time, 10c line, min. 30c

For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad.

3 times, 5c line, min. 50c

6 times, 5c line, min. 90c

25 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.75 (Average 5 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE—Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.

Phone 768

TENNIS RACKETS restructuring. All work guaranteed. Call us for a free estimate. Phone 501. 23-6t

Screen doors—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

Help Wanted

Company coming to Hope desires office girl. Sales experience desirable, but not necessary. Salary $12 week. Write Box XYZ Hope Star, 30-6tp.

FOR SALE

GRAPES for sale, $1 per bushel at Hart farm. Get them this week. V. C. Johnston. 26-3tp.

Used parts for all cars. P. A. Lewis Motor Co. 16-26t.

Best Paint Sold—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

FOR SALE—Gun Shop, Piano and Victrola. Mrs. R. L. Taylor, 815 West Sixth Street. 30-3t

Used cars bought and sold. P. A. Lewis Motor Co. 16-26t.

Wall Paper—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

WANTED

Shutters. Phone 15. 3t dh.

LOST

LOST—One green Edison fountain pen. Return to this office. 31-1tp.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By AHERN

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Ronnie Is Quite Sure!

ALLEY OOP

Another Call on the Brain Trust!

WASH TUBBS

Everything's Wrong!

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

A Visitor!

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

Class!

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

Luck's Tourist Court
Hickory Barbecue Sandwiches, Drinks
Open All Hours
Ray Luck H. E. Luck
Phone 222

Nelson-Huckins
LAUNDRY
Wash & Suits Properly Laundered
PHONE 8